Naples, July 9, N. S.

THE Barbary Pirates infeſt ſo much theſe Seas, that beſides having ſeized on ſeveral Neapolitan Veſſels, they made a Deſcent lately at Cape d'Otranto, and carried off eleven Perſons, beſides a good Quantity of Booty. This extraordinary Attempt has induced the Court to provide againſt the like for the future; and accordingly the principal Merchants of this City were ſummoned before the General of the Gallies, to conſult the proper Expedients, who came to a Determination to ask the King's Leave to fit out every Year two large Settee Cruizers, to be kept at Sea from the Month of March to October, and to beg he would grant them the neceſſary Artillery, Ammunition, and Soldiers, the Merchants obliging themſelves to furniſh the Veſſels, and to provide for the Maintenance and Pay of the Crew. In the Evenings of the 4th and 6th Inſtant, two violent Storms happened in this City, followed by Thunder and Lightning, which damaged divers Houſes and Buildings, and diſabled and killed ſeveral Perſons. On the 5th Cardinal Orſini, attended by his Retinue, ſet out from this City on his Return to Rome, and on his Arrival and Departure from Capua, was ſaluted by the firing of 22 Cannon, in Honour of his being appointed Protector of the Two Sicilies to the Court of Rome. The King has notified to the Magiſtrate of Health, that ſeveral Veſſels loaden with Goods were departed from Alexandria, Salonico, Cyprus, &c. infected with the Plague; in Conſequence of which, circular Letters were ſent to the Coaſt and Ports of this Kingdom to prevent their being admitted. A Project being upon the Tapis to diſmiſs Part of the King's Troops, Directions from the Court has been given to M. del Rio, the Inſpector General, to form a Plan for that Purpoſe, who has made the following Propoſals, viz. to diſmiſs the Swiſs Troops, excepting thoſe of the King's Life Guards; or to diſcharge ten Men of each Company of Veteran Troops, and 40 out of each Company of the Militia. This Day their Majeſties, with the Royal Family, attended by their reſpective Retinues, returned to this City from Portici.

Hague, July 30, N. S. Things continue at preſent very quiet in this Province, and it is to be hoped, that every Body will readily ſubmit to the new Regulations reſolved upon by the States of Holland. Tho' the publick Tranquillity is reſtor'd in this, and in ſome of the other Provinces, yet the Diſturbances daily increaſe in Frieſland. The Prince of Orange intended to have gone thither himſelf, to put an End to theſe Diſturbances; but it has been thought proper to ſend a Deputation firſt from the States General, to try, if poſſible, to appeaſe them; and 'tis ſaid, that beſides Meſſ. Tetſma and Schimmelpenninck, Mr. Charles Bentinck is to be appointed for this Commiſſion; and that ſeveral Regiments are ordered to march that Way.

General Poſt-Office, July 12, 1748.
